CUNY Graduate Center Philosophy Colloquia
Fall 2019 Term

Each colloquium will be held on Wednesday from 4:15 P.M. to 6:15 P.M except as otherwise noted.
All colloquia will take place at the GC in rooms 9-205/9-206 except as otherwise noted.

September 11 • Jonathan Adler Memorial Lecture
Philip Kitcher (Columbia University)
“Progress in the Sciences—and in the Arts”

September 18 • Note: colloquium will begin at 5:45
Jason Stanley (Yale University)
"Hustle: The Politics of Language"

September 25 • Note: colloquium will be held in C201/C202
Noël Carroll (CUNY Graduate Center)
“Forget Taste”

October 2
Zoë Johnson King (New York University)
“Radical Internalism”

October 23
Michelle M. Dyke (New York University)
"Could Our Epistemic Reasons Be Collective Practical Reasons?"

October 30
Stephen Grover (CUNY Queens College | Graduate Center)
“The Problem of Ugliness”

November 6
Sari Kisilevsky (CUNY Queens College)
“The Ethics of Punishment in the Age of Mass Incarceration “

November 13
Taylor Carman (Columbia University)
“Heidegger's Nietzsche”

November 20 • Co-hosted by Minorities and Philosophy (MAP), CUNY GC Chapter
Luvell Anderson (Syracuse University)
"Navigating Racial Satire"

November 27 • All-day Workshop for Practice Job Talks (Note: attendance limited to CUNY community)
TBD (CUNY Graduate Center)

December 4 • All-day Workshop for Practice Job Talks (Note: attendance limited to CUNY community)
TBD (CUNY Graduate Center)

December 11 • Alumni Day
Elvira Basevich (University of Massachusetts Lowell)
"Du Bois's Theory of Justice"

~ No Colloquium: October 9 (no classes), October 16 (CUNY Monday schedule) ~